MARQ

THE MARQ Gardens

A Community That Has Come to Life

The Marq Gardens was envisioned as a tranquil retreat where nature, wellness, and community come together to create a more balanced way of living.

THE MARQ Gardens

Today, that vision is a reality.

From peaceful garden walks to community gatherings and family events, The Marq Gardens has grown into more than a residential destination, it has become a community where families create lasting memories and meaningful connections.

THE MARQ Gardens

Across 26 acres of thoughtfully designed landscapes and all-villa living, residents are already experiencing a community shaped by nature, connection, and meaningful everyday moments.

The Story so Far

A community is defined not only by its homes, but by the experiences shared within it. The Marq Gardens has welcomed residents through a variety of community events, seasonal celebrations, family activities, and social gatherings that bring neighbors together and strengthen a sense of belonging.

THE MARQ Gardens

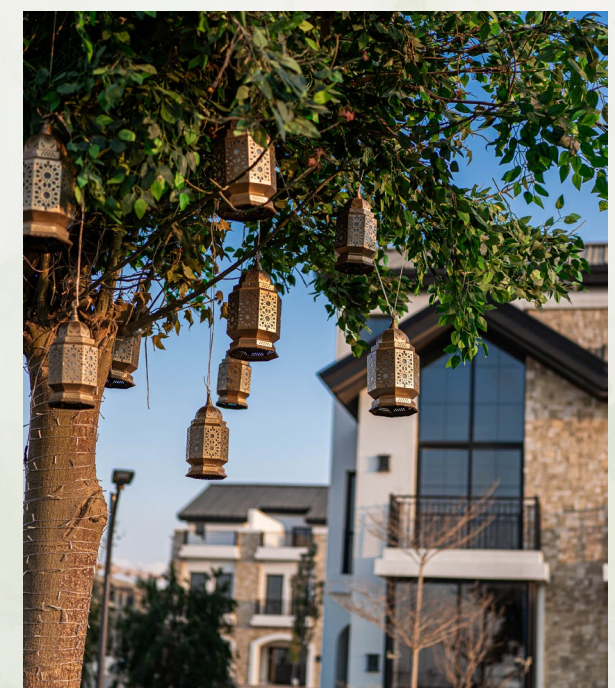

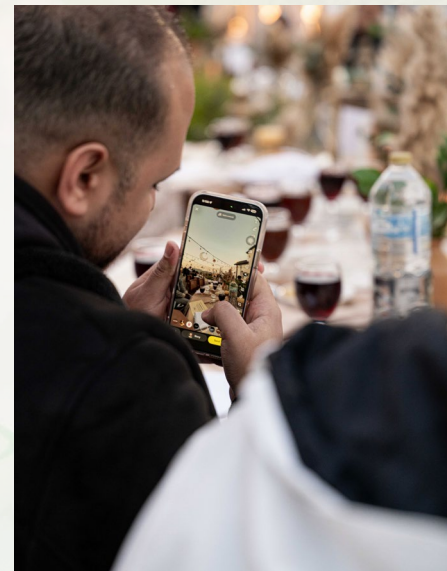

A close-up photograph of tall grass with several seed heads. The grass blades are long and thin, with a mix of green and golden-brown colors. The seed heads are dark brown and have a fuzzy, textured appearance. The background is a soft-focus field of similar grass.

LIFE AT THE MARQ Gardens

Moments That Bring Us Together

These moments are a reflection of the lifestyle that continues to grow within the community.

A Growing Community

As construction and handovers continue across different phases, The Marq Gardens continues to evolve while remaining true to its vision of creating a nature-inspired environment where life unfolds naturally. Every new home delivered and every new family welcomed adds another chapter to the story of the community.
